PROFILE

An enthusiastic and committed lecturer with over seven (7) years of experience in Guidance and Counselling. I provide a stimulating learning environment and encouraging students' intellectual growth. I have a good academic background and skills in counselling. I work to instill a love of learning while ensuring that students have a thorough comprehension of challenging ideas. I am skilled at delivering interesting lectures, facilitating engaging discussions, and offering effective support to students.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Lecturer at University of Uyo, Uyo
Since September 2012 till date

My role is encouraging students' critical thinking and intellectual development by establishing a lively, engaging learning environment. Encouraging student involvement in class, enabling conversations, and fostering cooperative learning opportunities.
